

Eden Valley Poultry Inc. is seeking an Assistance Controller to join our Finance team. Reporting to the Controller you will play a key role on the team, maintaining best practices and supporting the growth of the Company.

As a processor of chicken and turkey for our Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island farmers, Eden Valley Poultry is unique in the industry. We strive to be an employer of choice by contributing to the well-being of the community, minimizing our impact on the environment, and remaining focused on exceptional food safety and quality standards.

Why work for Eden Valley Poultry?

You will work in partnership with an incredible team. They will share with you their knowledge and their support. As a team, we will achieve our goals and live our values of excellence, visibility, and passion.

We offer benefits for you including medical, dental, and a pension plan. You will also have instant access to a health care provider for you and your family. By joining our team, you will also receive a subsidy towards a wellness program of your choice and access to on-line learning. As we grow and develop, we want to give you the same opportunity by offering tuition reimbursements. You will also get staff discounts on Eden Valley products.
