INTRODUCTION

The Board of Directors of CPA Nova Scotia awards the title of Fellow, designated by the initials FCPA, to formally recognize those CPA Nova Scotia members who have rendered exceptional services to the profession and whose achievements in their careers or in the community have earned them distinction and brought honour to the profession.

This guide can be used as a reference tool to assist those wishing to nominate a member of CPA Nova Scotia for recognition as a Fellow (FCPA). Two individuals, at least one of whom must be a member in good standing of CPA Nova Scotia, must sign the completed form.

Nominators are encouraged to review the admission criteria before completing the nomination file. Please refer to the completed sample nomination form and tips for preparing a nomination to help you with the quality and quantity of information to provide.

Nominations are considered by the Member Recognition Committee, which makes its recommendations to the CPA Nova Scotia Board of Directors. The Board confers the FCPAs.

Successful nominees and their nominators are then contacted directly. For unsuccessful nominations, the nominator will be contacted, as the nominee may not be aware that they have been nominated.

ADMISSION CRITERIA

Nature of Achievements Under Review

Nominators must highlight the candidate's leadership and the exceptional nature of the candidate's performance in the following fields of activity:

- Professional career,
- Volunteer involvement in the affairs of the accounting profession,
- Volunteer contribution to professional, community or charitable organizations.

Candidates need not have made an exceptional contribution or demonstrated leadership in all three areas, but the nomination file should demonstrate that the candidate has made a remarkable contribution in at least one field of activity and a significant achievement in the others.

Nominees should be recognized leaders due to the quality of their significant contributions in the three fields of activity listed above. In addition, nomination files must highlight the fact that candidates clearly identify themselves as a Chartered Professional Accountant and that they are known and recognized as a CPA.

In rare circumstances, a candidate may have made such an exceptionally outstanding contribution in one field of activity that the nominator feels that an FCPA is deserved. The Member Recognition Committee will consider such applications. The outstanding contribution of the candidate must be common knowledge, i.e., that the acknowledged achievements make the member a recognized and prominent leader in the field(s) of activity selected.

Eligibility of Candidates

General Principle

All members in good standing of CPA Nova Scotia are eligible for a Fellowship. Typically, FCPAs are awarded to more senior members of the profession, however, there is no minimum age or years of qualification.

Exceptions

The following persons are not eligible:

- Members of the Board of CPA Nova Scotia or its Recognition Committee until a minimum of twelve months after they have completed their term,
- Members who have been the subject of a disciplinary decision resulting in their being struck off the roll of a professional body or a similar organization,
- Members who have a disciplinary sanction on their CPA Nova Scotia registration record or against whom there is a current complaint,
- Members who are currently subject to a limitation or suspension of their right to engage in professional activities,
- Members with a criminal record related to charges laid after they attained the first of their CPA or legacy designation,
- Members who are a defendant before the criminal courts.

Notwithstanding this, CPA Nova Scotia may accept a nomination after taking the relative weight of the offence into account, including the nature of the offence and efforts to rehabilitate since then.

Responsibilities of Nominators

Nominators are responsible for ensuring that the file is complete and that the information it contains is accurate and sufficient to allow the Member Recognition Committee to fairly evaluate the nomination. The recommendations of the Member Recognition Committee and the decisions of the Board of Directors will primarily depend on the care taken to describe the candidate's achievements. You should therefore clearly indicate the businesses, organizations, and committees in which the candidate has been involved, his or her publications and accomplishments, as well as the relevant dates.

While the nomination file submitted must be complete, the Member Recognition Committee reserves the right to have the main facts in support of a nomination validated by outside sources or by directly contacting any of the nominators.

NOMINATION FILE FOR THE TITLE OF FELLOW (FCPA)

Nominations should be kept confidential and must be signed by at least two individuals; one nominator must be a Member of CPA Nova Scotia. The nominators are required to provide a letter explaining why they have nominated the candidate.

Please complete the nomination file by following the specific instructions for each section and filling in the information directly on the document.

We, the undersigned, nominate the following member of CPA Nova Scotia for the honour of the designation of Fellow:
